TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

Rochester will Soon Have a Telephone Exchange. Inspecting Plymouth Service.

A franchise has been granted at Rochester for the placing of a telephone service there. The franchise has been secured by L. M. Brackett, president of the Citizen's bank, H. A. Barnhart, editor of the Rochester Sentinel, and Attorneys Holman & Stevenson, all of Rochester.

These gentlemen were looking over our excellent system, and negotiating with Manager Reeve to come to that place and superintend the construction of that system. They were highly pleased with the construction and efficient service of the Plymouth exchange, and arrangement will no doubt be consummated whereby Mr. Reeve will superintend the work in that city.

The prices quoted for the Rochester service is, two dollars for business houses, offices, etc., and one dollar for residences per month. There will be no free tolls connected with this service, everybody using toll lines will be required to pay whether they own a phone or not. In this respect Plymouth is far superior to the Rochester service.

Grand Jury Drawn.

The grand jury for the December term of 1895, have been drawn, and the names are as follows: John Brock, Bourbon township; Ferdinand Cox, Walnut township; Jesse Miller, North township; George W. Garn, Union township; Henry W. Hartman, Tippecanoe township; Charles H. Stahl, Union township.

The petit jury drawn for December term of 1895, Marshall county, circuit court summoned to appear third day of term December 18 '95, are: Christopher G. Halt, North township; Lewellen W. McClure, Walnut township; Enoch P. Baker, North township; David S. Zehner, Green township; Geo. Helming, German township; James Drummond, Walnut township; John C. Haag, Polk, township; Peter Keller, Union township; Isaac Strickler, Green township; Andrew Eckert, Center township; Joseph Carl, Bourbon township, and George Balsley, German township.

A Fad. Some of the newspapers, whose editors can't find enough substantial things to fill their columns and are always trying to originate new fads, now advocate the abolition of hyphens and the "spacing" of lines at the end. This item will give you an idea how the thing would look. We don't think you would like the style, or that it would improve the appearance of the printed page. The reader agrees with us, of course, and this glimpse of the ragged edge style is positively its last appearance on this stage.

V. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. met at their hall at 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon, and the meeting was called to order by president, D. Frank Redd, and opening exercises attended to by secretary W. M. Nichols. The executive and soliciting committees made a report of their business up to the present time. There will be a special meeting Tuesday evening for the transaction of business. The parlors are now in care of the secretary and are open from 7 a. m. The officers are collecting the money as fast as possible and will soon have the gymnasium fitted up.

The Fish Jubilee Singers. The entertainment to be given tonight will be one of interest. Lovers of music should be prepared to enjoy this great treat. This entertainment is under the auspices of our young people of the Epworth League.

Life Imprisonment. Alonzo Powers, who has been on trial at Laporte for the murder of Wm. Tratebas, was found guilty of murder in the first degree Friday night, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He took the sentence very coolly.

A Publisher's Union. Turkey Time. The time to sell turkeys is when they are fat don't hold for holiday markets. The markets usually on our stock at that time. We can take care of all that will come, any day in the week, at full market value. Don't feed on the day you bring to market.

J. SWINDELL & BRO.

The Importance of Dress. "I have one bit of advice to give to every young man I take enough interest in to talk to at all about such matters," said one of Washington's most fashionable tailors to a reporter, in the course of a casual conversation, "and that is to dress as well as his means will permit. Dress may not make the man, but dress lends 50 per cent of value to a man that is a man. The world is full of youths who could dress far better than they do if they had a just appreciation of their value. Their idea is to save money on clothes, but they follow the poorest system of economy that I know of. A fashionable suit imparts a finished appearance to a man, and such is the weakness or vanity of the world that of half a dozen men equally talented it will invariably pin its faith in the one that is best dressed. Not that a young man's responsibility ends with his tailor. The fact is, there are three other points in a gentleman's make-up that tell his taste and character even more than a fashionable suit. The first is his hat, the next his shoes, and between the two, his cravat. Even a shabby suit of clothes is thrown into the shade if a man wears a good hat, shoes carefully polished and a piece of neckwear absolutely clean and carefully tied. If coupled with all this he wears a clean collar and clean cuffs, he may pass for a gentleman on prima facie evidence wherever he chooses to go in the business world. All combined form the passport to good society. The rest is with himself."

Good Roads in Connecticut. The good-roads movement in Connecticut, which was started by the last session of the legislature, has proved to be a popular one, eighty of the towns having applied to the highway commission for the state aid provided by the statute. This means a good many miles of roads built according to the specifications of the state commission and under its practical supervision. Each section of road ordered has to be visited by one or more members of the commission, who are all practical men and one of them an engineer, before the state money can be given. The popularity of the movement had not been anticipated, the legislators apparently not realizing the desire of the people of the state, especially of the farming sections, to establish better transportation for their products.

Catarrh, Hay Fever. Kill the Catarrh microbe and you cure Catarrh. These parasites nest deep in the tissues and folds of the olfactory membrane, and are difficult to reach and kill; but Brazilian Balm will utterly destroy them if used persistently as directed. It also destroys the Hay Fever germ in a few days. Use full strength, or nearly so, for Hay Fever. Cure permanent.

Bourbon.

Bourbon, Dec. 6th. Revival meetings are in progress at the M. E. church.

The first sleighbells to jingle this morning were heard last night.

Mr. Henry Simons, of Warsaw, was in town a few hours today on business.

Two men were seen on our streets this morning, each with a quart can of beer, which they were pouring down their throats.

Charley Eleesser was in town late last night looking for blood, but was not able to find it. It seems that Link Snyder got the best of him on a gun trade and Charles wanted satisfaction.

Owing to the great success of our present stock shippers, there is one more who is thinking seriously of launching into that business. Our shippers are at present shipping from $5,000 to $10,000 worth of stock per week.

Last night the last one of our three saloons stopped selling liquors over the bar, on account of the state license expiring. Mr. Richard Reed's license expired last Monday at noon; Mr. Syl Deal's license Tuesday night; and Jacob Walmer's license expired Thursday night.

Dr. Weiser reports that he is receiving a great many bids on his stock of drugs and notions. His three main offers so far are: A large snitarium located somewhere in Michigan; a sixty room hotel located in a 3,500 town in Indiana; and the third, thirty-four city lots and $1,000 in cash located also in Indiana. The Doctor must be going to sell out.

Mr. Beals has closed his saloon and sold his stock of liquors. Poor health is his reason for closing. Messrs. Reed and Walmer are each selling by the quart: Mr. Walmer is wanting to buy 500 Nicholson pails for his quart customers. Next Monday Mr. Walmer will move his saloon across the street into the south room of the Keystone block, next to Mr. E. K. Byrer's furniture store.
